

General collaboration agreements

Institutional-level agreements to seek a variety of collaboration opportunities across both universities.

Collaborative degree programs

International Accelerated Degree Programs: Earn two degrees; one bachelor's degree from the partner university and one master's degree from ASU.

- Graduate Dual-degree Programs: Earn two graduate degrees, one from each institution.
- Undergraduate Dual-degree Programs: Earn two bachelor's degrees, one from each institution.

Student exchange agreements

Reciprocal exchange of ASU students to the host institution, and students from the host institution to ASU.

Direct enrollment partnership

ASU students study abroad for one semester or one year, and pay a program fee that includes host institution tuition.

Global visiting programs

Undergraduate students attend ASU for one semester or for one year (non-exchange).
